AUGUST “AUGIE” HOFFMANN

Augie Hoffmann has lived a football life. He has played and thrived at every level of competitive football in high school, college, the pros, and now in coaching.

Augie played Offensive Guard for St. Joe's from 1995-99. Throughout his immensely successful high school career, Augie was recognized for his dominant O-Line play with all-league, all-county, and all-state honors.

He went on to play football at Boston College (4 years varsity), where he earned First Team All Big East honors and the coveted Scanlan Award at BC – the highest honor bestowed upon a BC football player.

In 2006, Augie was signed to a free-agent contract by the New Orleans Saints, and played in NFL Europe.

After three seasons Augie returned to his alma mater, St. Joe's to start his coaching career in 2009. He coached the freshman team before becoming varsity offensive line coach in 2011; a position he held until 2014. He is currently varsity head coach at St. Joe's.
